

Chemisorb OVERVIEW TCD

The Chemisoft TPx accessory allows the user to acquire the detector signal, the sample temperature, and the furnace temperature. These signals can then be included graphically in reports.

The detector signal can also be plotted versus temperature. This allows the user to easily compare temperature programmed analyses for multiple samples.

