

grit (in atmospheric chemistry)

Airborne solid particles in the atmosphere which are of natural or manmade origin and which remain in suspension for some time; in the United Kingdom the size of the grit particles is defined as greater than 75  $\mu\text{m}$  in diameter (retained on a 200 mesh British Standard sieve).

1990, 62, 2193