

migration

1. The (usually intramolecular) transfer of an atom or group during the course of a molecular rearrangement.
2. The movement of a bond to a new position, within the same molecular entity, is known as 'bond migration'.

Allylic rearrangements, e.g.

exemplify both types of migration.

1994, 66, 1141