

peak (in chromatography)

The portion of a differential chromatogram recording the detector response when a single component is eluted from the column. If separation is incomplete, two or more components may be eluted as one unresolved peak.

1993, 65, 835; O.B. 96, 101