

quality of solvent (in polymer chemistry)

A qualitative characterization of the polymer–solvent interaction. A solution of a polymer in a ‘better’ solvent is characterized by a higher value of the second virial coefficient than a solution of the same polymer in a ‘poorer’ solvent.

P.B. 57